Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 27 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Variable, often large amounts of cloud and some clear intervals.

This Evening and Tonight:
A few showers affecting the far south-east later, whilst thicker cloud brings some drizzle to both north-east England and north-west Scotland at times. Variable cloud and clear spells elsewhere with a few fog patches developing.

Saturday:
Scattering of showers across south-east England, with further drizzle in the far north, else dry with variable cloud and spells of sunshine. Warmer than on Friday.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Remaining fine and dry with the best of any warm sunshine in the west. However, cloudier and cooler for eastern parts where it will be breezy with some light showers.
